

October 29, 2016 - 9:30 a.m.

Starting at Russellville Train Depot (located at Russellville Historic Down Town)

Tour De Pumpkin

Come join us for the 20th annual "TOUR de PUMPKIN" bike ride, the official ride of the Downtown Fall Festival. Started in 1992, Russellville's DOWNTOWN FALL FESTIVAL & CHILI COOKOFF is a fun filled street festival held each year on the last Saturday in October.

All riders will receive a T-shirt and a FREE chili tasting kit.

The Ride

The beginner route is 3.5 miles and takes riders from the Depot downtown, over the new pedestrian bridge, around the Phoenix extension, through Tech campus and back up El Paso Street to the Depot. The medium route is 17 a mile course and the long route is a 30-mile. The Russellville Police Department will be providing an escort at the beginning of the ride. Maps will be available on race day. All riders must wear helmets. Break stations, a SAG wagon & course markings will be provided.

Door Prizes

There will be drawings for many door prizes after the ride. There will also be trophies awarded for youngest riders, best costumes, farthest traveler plus other awards.

Parking

Parking for riders will be available in the Sugar Creek Foods parking lot on West C street.
